Finally, one evening, one of the eggshells began to crack, and the little heads of the newborn ducklings appeared. How beautiful they were with their soft golden feathers! But, suddenly, out of the biggest egg came the great big head of a very different duckling...

A lovely adaptation - urban and modern – of a classic that, combined with the oil paint pictures, immerses us in a very sweet fable. An indispensable book to teach children about tolerance and respect. A story that has touched every generation.
