Season: AUTUMN 2012

This epic and fantastic novel interweaves the lives of unforgettable characters such as Muhamad, the son of Marwán, who divides his love between Judit, 'la Guapísima', and Adine, Judit's cousin; the Duke Claudio, leader and representative of the Christians, or the Emir Abderramán II, a monarch who is as refined and cultured as he is cruel and vengeful. In Alcazaba, Jesús Sánchez Adalid sheds new light on the IX Century with masterly style, and reveals to us one of the most decisive and unknown moments in the history of three cultures.
