Souto Menaya, "Boots", is a footballer who has known glory and is now suffering hell. After a historic goal at the end of the Royal Cup of 1944, his career has been cut short by an injury that has left him lame. Having worked as a builder before he became a professional player, he now needs a sedentary job and ends up accepting one stuffing photos into envelopes. That is how he comes across his own photo in the football collections. (Incomplete text. Complete version in separate email)
