A little more than two years have passed in the lives of the young friends who make up "the misunderstandings' club". Things have changed since one by one they met on their journey. New problems, secrets, loves, jealousies.... Nevertheless, until now, their friendship has helped them deal with everything and everyone.

Raúl has become an attractive young man and a born leader; Valeria squanders sympathy wherever she goes, although she has not yet completely overcome her shyness; Eli is the one who has changed the most and whom everyone finds irresistible; Maria watches and dreams from behind her thick blue glasses; Bruno has not managed to forget how he feels, and deep in his heart he hopes this will be returned; and Ester is the daughter-in-law that every mother hopes to have, although she is not as innocent as she seems.
