Fun is guaranteed with this story of Braulia, Brígida and Brunilda, the witch triplets famous at the Witch Academy for their pranks and for always putting their foot in it. They have just been awarded their Witch Diplomas and, as part of the practical training, the Head Witch sends them to a school for ordinary, everyday human beings. Braulia, Brígida and Brunilda reach their destination flying on broomsticks fitted with automatic gear shift, standard airbag, ergonomic seating and built-in CD player. There, they help out a girl in a difficult situation, get up to all kinds of mischief and have thrilling adventures. A story filled with humour that will have you splitting your sides laughing, but which also deals with important topics such as the value of friendship, kindness and respect for those who are different to ourselves.
