The animals in the forest have a visit from the Mischievous Goblin, but naughty as he is, the Goblin begins hiding personal objects from the little animals. To help them find these objects, children will have to open envelopes, buttons and zips and follow the clues that the Goblin has left all over the book.

It is an imaginative tale, which is full of activities and motivates learning. It is soft, pillow-like... so ludic and pedagogical possibilities are endless. It also Includes a flap with instruccions for parents to find resources in the book to play with their children.
