Ramonet is a Gypsy who lives in the South of France. On the outskirts of a town in Ampurdan, Catalonia, he buys a second hand truck and sets out to recover the traditional nomadic life of the Gypsy people, the Manouche, which is the clan or ethnic group to which he belongs. This hazardous journey, filled with joy and sadness, adventure and surprises, hides a flight, but also represents an attempt to reconcile himself with his family and his roots. A charming road movie, full of humour and adventure.
