On the eve of San Juan in 1980, the inhabitants of Calabella, on the Costa Brava, are waiting for the mythical Ava Gardner, who is going to open the town's summer cinema. Everyone is on the lookout for the actress, except Justo, the youngest of the strange Brightman family. On the most magical day of the year, the boy has decided that, instead of making a wish, he will do everything he can to change his family's fortune. The Dream Night is the story of a search for happiness. With Màxim Huerta, the reader will discover that the most dangerous journey is always the one we take towards love, so often painful and impossible, but of which we must never stop dreaming.
