A costumbrista novel, but with strange customs. A realist story, but from a reality different from yours. Or not. More or less. 'Do you know who you are? Me neither.' An age when confusion is easy; a journey back to a world that isn't yours; a land so real it seems magical, where metaphors are real and tangible. More or Less Me is a coming of age story, a road movie, a rite of passage novel, where certain relatively everyday experiences acquire transcendental aspects that change the protagonist's life forever... and perhaps also (why not?) the reader's life.
