Extremely inquisitive eyes, a long sausage of a nose, great flapping ears, feet, hands... Oh go on, tell us, what do you look like? The first title in the "Rimar i somiar" ("Rhyme and Dream") collection, which consists of ten stories that introduce younger readers to the concepts around them in a fun and ingenious way. The human body, the four seasons, animals and plants, inventions, professions, the city and many more themes are presented to children in an amusing manner with texts by Carmen Gil that are full of musicality and ingenuity.
