At times Clara can be impulsive and, as a result, her actions sometimes have negative consequences. Chic the fairy is by her side to help her consider and reflect on her mistakes. In short: a guide to reflection in order to avoid similar situations in the future. The key themes dealt with in "The Little Artists' Class" are self-esteem, respect and impulsiveness. The figures of the mentors, Chic the fairy and Trok the troll, are imaginary figures who guide the child's behaviour and encourage them to reflect. As a result, each time the child displays negative behaviour, the fairy or the troll will guide the main character's reflection. The aim is that the young readers identify with the story and learn to understand the consequences of their actions in a fun and entertaining way.
