"Charcoal Letters" (Irene Vasco and Juan Palomino): Almost no-one in the town of Palenque knows how to read. Señor Valendia, the owner of the shop, is one of the few people who do. When Gina starts to receive letters, which she supposes are love letters, her little sister decides to learn in order to be able to read these mysterious letters... A touching story about literacy brought to us from a remote town in Colombia by the acclaimed author Irene Vasco.
