THRILLER, TERROR. When, a year into their relationship, Edward Benet, a handsome English gentleman, suggests to Amanda Kresley that she travel with him from United States to Great Britain to meet his mother, there is nothing to make her suspect that this might become the worst journey of her life. Chelston House, a beautiful mansion in the middle of the English countryside, is the idyllic place where Edward's mother, Meredith, lives. At first, everything points to a perfect stay, but in Cheston, nothing is what it seems. Amanda soon becomes embroiled in a world of secrets, lies, tormented characters on the verge of madness, capable of anything to preserve their strange way of life.
