At last, a serious and intelligent analysis of the New Age phenomenon. Probably the most comprehensive and ambitious work produced on the subject by a Spanish speaking author. A study which is destined to become the essential reference work on the universe of the New Age.

With exquisite agility, Vicente Merlo first immerses us in his own spiritual journey along the various New Age paths. In this pleasing and sincere way, he brings us to a meticulous and abundantly illustrated presentation of the main authors, movements and doctrines that form the so-called New Age. The book revolves around what the author designates the three constitutional dimensions of the New Age: the oriental dimension, the psycho-therapeutic dimension and the esoteric dimension.
