Season: SPRING 2010

A novel focused on the business world, particularly the interpersonal relations between co-workers, where sex, lies, secrets and passion reveal the fundamental nature of the human condition. A fiercely ironic exploration of the lengths to which human beings are capable of going to appear to be what they are not and hide what they really are... until the head of the company decides to intervene, and investigate the private lives of his closest colleagues and discover all their secrets.
