"The job lasted me as long as a pair of shoes" confesses Dani Santana. What were the circumstances that drove the editor of the newspaper Crònica to leave the post so hastily? What balancing game between power and politics is shaking the newspaper to its foundations? What is hidden behind the seductive curtains of the world of journalism? The truth seems ensnared in a web of corruption and silence. When Senza, head of Society at Crònica is implicated to the hilt in an investigation into Islamist terrorism in Barcelona, events gather speed, and the two journalists begin to lose control of their destiny. Set in Barcelona during the property boom, All Will Be Revealed is a candid, vibrant and action-packed novel, with all the ingredients to keep readers captivated.
