SPRING

2017

Season: Year 2017

Nico is a new arrival in María's class. Nobody pays him much attention, because he's quiet and doesn't run or jump. Nico is a very special boy. But María knows how to look further than the others and invents a new way to play football, with hands. . . This picture book (for ages six and above) tells a moving story about friendship and disability. Based on the film Cuerdas (Strings), winner of the 2014 Goya Award for the Best Animated Short Film, and recognised in the Guinness Book of Records as the most prize-winning animated short of all time.
