Season: Year 2017

My First Larousse of Art leads you on a journey through the whole of art history since the birth of humanity, across all continents and in every era, from prehistoric cave paintings to current artistic trends. A series of themed double-page spreads focusses on the Egyptian pyramids, Greek temples, the Moorish influence in Granada, precolombian sculpture, the Mudéjar Towers, the Santa Sophia Basilica and Renaissance Florence. Along the way you will meet the greatest painters - including Velázquez, Goya, Picasso and Dalí - and visit the world's most important museums, such as Madrid's Prado, the Louvre in Paris and MoMa in New York.
