Sandra's life has turned around completely in the last eighteen months. After escaping the deceitful clutches of a group of entirely un-innocent elderly people based in the peaceful town of Dianium, she moves to Madrid with her newborn son, Janín. Distanced from her past, her new life seems to be flowing along happily, but one day when she collects Janín from daycare she finds an anonymous note in his bag: 'WHERE IS YOUR FRIEND JULIÁN?'. Having not heard from him in a long time, Sandra will have to find him and warn him: someone is after him and they won't stop at anything until they find him. In the meantime, Julián spends his time at Los Tres Olivos carehome. Since he and Sandra uncovered the whereabouts of various members of the Brotherhood, he has continued his efforts to bring the hidden face of the old Nazis living on the Costa Brava to light.
