AUTUMN

2009

Season: AUTUMN 2009

The collection "Cuadernos de Viaje®" was started with the intent to discover, from a totally intimate and subjective perspective: its corners, its customs and the elements that make them unique. From the hand of our authors we would like the readers to go into the heart of the metropolis in a different way when they first face it or recall, however many times they wish, the experience of having got to know it.
