What happens to the Dancing Queen when school's over? April had everything: the boy of her dreams, a scholarship for a prestigious university and a promising future in New York. But sometimes life delivers a low blow: two blinding headlights and a desperate man proved enough to put an end to her dream of a fairy story ending. Her present is in ruins and her future uncertain; April lives on her memories. However, just when she least expects it, a ghost returns from the past. Someone who have been broken and put back together so many times that he might just have the formula for her to do the same.
