Nearly twenty years on, the students of Liceo de la Guardia de Blyd are busy using their magic to protect a society that has been living in peace for years. But when the shadow of Dominio returns to threaten the country, a group of students will have to confront secrets from the past . . . without revealing their own. A review: 'I had been on a streak of fairly mediocre reading and I really needed one of those books you can't put down. . . I didn't know that what was waiting for me was The Second Revolution. I loved it' Feverish Reader
