There are as many stories as there are words and voices inside people. There are as many poems as there are sounds and colours in nature. So what happens when a poem gets inside a story? Suddenly, a legend appears. Discover a story where everything is cloaked in lyricism and magic, with a rhythm that moves you and a musicality that rocks you in an atmosphere of tenderness and delicacy embodied in each of the illustrations. A book where magic is present from start to finish, where the pulse of the poetry and the plot (the two protagonists in this story) travel hand in hand with our hearts and emotions. A book that speaks of LOVE as thing that keeps the world turning. A love made tangible in a KISS, which isn't just the union of some lips, but the infinite EMBRACE with which legends are written.
