If anything defines Kenzie Sullivan it is her obsession for making lists that help to organise her life: a weekly meal plan, books to be read, clothes she'll wear, etc. And, of course, she also has a list with the names of boys she likes: from her platonic love, someone she will never even dare to speak to; via her best friend, who she secretly loves, to her worst enemy, the boy she would never, ever go out with. But, what will happen when one day someone steals her list and passes it around everyone at school? Kenzie will have to learn to confront her problems. Perhaps along the way she will discover that life cannot always be controlled and the most important things happen when we let ourselves go.
