The beautiful old cemetery at the heart of the city of Malmö is a meeting point for spirits. Nils is one of them and he's delighted about it because he can spend all his time doing what he enjoys most: hooking up. The lingering dead have a lot going for them, and when it suits them they can go into ghost mode so nobody notices them. Or not. Siri, a very special girl, has found out about them. And Nils is not at all happy about it, because he can't let anybody find out about his existence. The spirits need to remain a myth.
