Hanna is a sixteen-year-old girl who leads a boring, monotonous life sitting in front of her computer and visiting social networking sites. But all that changes when she receives a message on Facebook from "Alex Crowell." Without giving it a second thought, she sends him a friend request, and he accepts a few seconds later. But then something unsettling happens: when she looks at his homepage, Hanna discovers that the boy is dead. And what's the most creepy thing? The message she immediately afterwards receives from him. Alex wants her to help him to find out who killed him. Janeth G. S. is a Mexican author who has revolutionised the Wattpad community with this novel of mystery and young love.
