Humour, intrigue and love are at the heart of this frenetic comedy full of misunderstandings where nobody is who they claim to be. When blonde and perfect Ángela is too ill to travel to Ireland, her sister Marina, forever beset by problems and disasters, goes in her place. On arrival she becomes embroiled in an absurd misunderstanding with Patrick, her sister's (very handsome) Irish boyfriend, the dogs belonging to his housekeeper, Mrs Higgins, her Sicilian guests (who appear to be involved with the mafia) and a family of radical animal rights activists. To make things worse, Marina keeps running into C.C., a geek who wants to live in the virtual world of his computer games and keeps sending her plans off track.
