César Sánchez returns with his second book, a fantastic literary tour on which each stop is a challenge to the reader's imagination and intelligence. A book of tales that sets us out to a journey from the detective story to science fiction via humour and the microtext, to offer a very personal vision of those cities we have never visited or have never dared to imagine in that way. The stories in Ciudades en las que nunca has estado (Cities You Have Never Visited) include real cities (Los Angeles, London, Ávila etc) and imaginary ones (No York, Bucarest and Indirabrantopolis). The introduction to the stories is written by the author and journalist Lara López, who headed RNE 3 from 2008 to 2012.
