When Ángela - blonde and perfect - is too ill to travel to Ireland, her sister, Marina, a specialist in problems and disasters, goes in her place. On arrival she finds herself swept into an absurd misunderstanding with Patrick, her sister's boyfriend (Irish and very handsome), with the dogs belonging to Mrs Higgins (his horrible landlady), with her Sicilian guests (who appear to belong to the mafia) and with a mad family of radical animal rights activists. To complicate things further, C.C., a geek who wants to live only in the virtual world, keeps turning up and throwing all her plans into chaos. Humour, intrigue and love are all to be found in this frenetic comedy full of misunderstandings and in which nobody is who they seem to be.
