Fourteen year old Nasario thinks his life is bland and unfair. He feels lonely and misunderstood, and the village into which he was born has become too small. There is only one way out: to start walking and go far away, to seek his fortune and return a successful man. This journey of initiation will take him to the most unusual places and to meet the most extraordinary characters. But the most valuable teaching is not always a treasure hidden along the way. A poetic, delicate story, full of surreal adventures, illuminated by the masterful drawings of Albert Asensio.
