"Poet in New York" forms part of the poetic legacy of mankind. This comic, scripted and drawn by Carlos Esquembre, depicts an original vision about Federico García Lorca's stay in New York. We will let ourselves be assaulted by the passions and obsessions of the Granadan writer based on his letters and the testimony of those who followed him on that adventure. A unique opportunity to approach García Lorca's imperishable work. Five poems illustrated by Carlos Esquembre are included.
