They've been betrayed. Now they have to survive... until they can take their revenge. Katarina, Crystal and Louane are not only the three most lethal assassins in the service of the King but they are also gifted: they have special skills. Unfortunately, during their last mission, the assassination of the heir to a neighbouring kingdom during a festival, they discover that they've been betrayed: now the three of them must face a reckoning. They've always proven themselves very capable of destroying the lives of others but now that they are themselves trapped in a desperate situation, will they manage to save their own?
