Did you know there's a superhero inside you? Yes – every little girl and boy has one! But sometimes for no reason, our superhero seems to vanish. Like when the dark makes us afraid, or when we hurt ourselves and we have to go to the doctor. But don't worry. Even when you can't feel them your superpowers are still there, you just have to open your imagination. And that's when amazing things can happen – the doctor is a fairy who can cure anything, your tears fill the pool with flowers, and the scary ghosts are suddenly wearing silly clothes! With a good dose of humour and imagination our problems suddenly shrink away and our superhero is back! Turn the wheel, choose your story and find your superpowers again!
