Whoever possesses the spear of Longinos will rule the world. But whoever loses it will meet their own death. Eliza is a well-known English medium who earns a living with her family putting people in touch with their loved ones on the other side. In one session an incontrollable and terrifying spirit communicates through her and sets her daughter a strange and dangerous mission: to recover the spear of Longinos. Abby has no choice but to journey to Germany in the middle of the Second World War in search of the holy but cursed spear, which according to her sources is in the hands of Hitler himself. But to reach him she must adopt a false identity and infiltrate the ranks of the top Nazis. Laura Falcó's exciting novel combines history and fiction with intrigue and romance.
