

La noche enamorada: de San Juan de la Cruz

The Night In Love: by Saint John of the Cross

Author: Pedro Miguel Lamet [1]

Publisher: Grupo de Comunicación Loyola, S.L.U. [2]

Language: Spanish

Year of Publication: 2020

Pages: 560

Number of editions: 1

Spanish Retail price: 22.00€

ISBN: 978-84-271-4481-1

Genre: Literature

SPRING

2021

Season: Year 2021

Short and skinny, nobody would have imagined that such an insignificant appearance concealed possibly the best poet in the history of Spanish literature and a most accomplished person in mystical union, Saint John of the Cross. In this historical novel the Segovian poet and merchant Pedro de Valmores, bitter with jealousy after being abandoned by his lover Ana de Peñalosa, embarks on a horseback journey in search of the friar, whom he considers the cause of all his problems. The search reveals a complex Spain under King Felipe II, the politics, the Inquisition, the Iluminados, the role of the monarchy in the reform, the bandit attacks, the cultural coexistence of Sufism and Judaism, daily life, the rivalry between the Carmelites and the whims of the court ladies.

Publishing rights available from Company: GRUPO DE COMUNICACIÓN LOYOLA

CIF: B48003859

Address: C/ Padre Lojendio, 2

Contact: Álvaro Casares

Phone: 944470358

E-mail: alvarocasares@gcloyola.com [3]

Website: <https://gcloyola.com/> [4]

Source URL: <http://217.160.225.169/node/39777>

Links:

[1] <http://217.160.225.169/node/39905>

[2] <http://217.160.225.169/node/39906>

[3] <mailto:alvarocasares@gcloyola.com>

[4] <https://gcloyola.com/>