Everyone feels a bit uneasy when one of the Supercurious looks us directly in the eye and opens their mouths to ask... Is there an enormous island made of plastic in the Pacific Ocean? Can you still eat a yoghurt if it's past its best-before date? Do Cow burps and farts count as pollution? What are the three R's? Do we export rubbish? Do pandemics happen because of climate change? Is lockdown good for the climate? Find answers to these questions and many more, learn about everything to do with the environment: rubbish and waste, pollution, climate change, plastics, recycling, sewage treatment plants, sustainable housing, what you can do to help protect the environment...
