Laura is a kid who owns a red biplane and in it, she travels the world, reaching Australia where she meets koalas and kangaroos before getting back home. This is a story with two main themes, friendship and protecting the environment. The book fosters dialogue and imagination, its text uses the illustrations to introduce new vocabulary (hangar, harrier, hover...) and encourages a detailed reading of each image, talking about different aspects of the landscape, the animals that appear throughout the book, placing them geographically...
