There are some things we can only learn thanks to the example of those around us ... And even then, sometimes the Blue Goblin needs to remind us! The ten delightful stories in this book teach us to recognize values such as gratitude, respect, patience, commitment, responsibility, or empathy in our daily lives. To learn to apply them, so making ourselves - young and old - more connected with the world around us and happier people. 10 stories with values that will entertain children and help parents in the education of their children.
