True Colors is the story of two youngsters called Abril Rizzo and Nate Collins, who decide to venture into the world and start on a trip via several countries including the US, Mexico, Venezuela, Colombia, Peru and Italy. However, they also make a second, even more courageous journey, into friendship and love which leads them into the uncharted waters of their own inner selves where they have to overcome those dark moments in life and in so doing, discover the essential ingredients for happiness: reaffirming and following dreams, independence, strength, hope, thankfulness, forgiveness and reconciliation.
