In the middle of December 2009 the first murders in Hornachuelos leap from the television and newspaper headlines. Although at first the government creates a smokescreen around the violent attacks verging on cannibalism, the Crisis of the Double Murder explodes all over Andalucía with no one able to provide a swift response.

February 2010. The global economic crisis can scarcely conceal the seriousness of what has happened in Andalucía over the last few weeks. Various hypotheses are considered as having triggered the resurrection of the flesh, but the only thing known for sure is that Hunger has spread throughout the region's 8 provinces.

'La guerra de la doble muerte' is the story of Judith, Salvador and Jonás; the struggle of these three people, raised from the dead, who, after having lost all their memories must face a world they do not understand and from which they must flee.
