The story of "The magic candles" has not been written by anyone yet. It cannot be found in any bookshop. Only my father knows it: Once in Bondadia, a craftsman made two candles, Fidelón and Luz Bella, two magical candles turning anyone who would come close to them into a good person. What a change occurred in the country! Until one day ... A powerful hurricane struck the kingdom.

Fidelón's generosity, against Luz Bella's volatility, ensures that peace reign in Bondadia.
