In the distant past, the god Tubilok explored the dimensions of time and space, losing his mind in the search for absolute power and knowledge. For centuries he has lain dormant in the rocks, but now he awakes from his thousand-year slumber, prepared to annihilate humanity and sow the seeds of madness and destruction throughout the land of Tramórea. Voluntarily or by force, the other gods accompany him on his demented crusade. The only ones left are three Kalagorinôr wizards, 'those who await the gods'. In order to confront the threat they will need to help of the great sword masters. This time, Derguín and Kratos will have to take the war to unforeseen levels. As they do so they uncover their past and future, and discover the secrets hidden in the three moons and the core of Tramórea.
