Season: SPRING 2011

Wendy and her patrol partner Roger come across a couple arguing in the street. The woman maintains that her partner mistreats her, while he calmly states that she is crazy and has been drinking. Who is telling the truth? In cases of mistreatment, it is necessary to take action. On the way to the police station, the woman confesses that she was previously married to an abusive man and that her new partner is threatening to kill her. A short time later, the couple are found dead. Wendy's intuition and skill will lead her into her own investigation into who is responsible.
