'No woman can be blamed if two men are in love with her.' Thus begins this magnificent novel of intense contrasts and unforgettable characters: Amelia, beautiful, rebellious, insatiable. Martín, idealistic, free-thinking, vanquished. And Alberto, the terrifying second-lieutenant Repellejo, a monster in love, a spirit endowed with a strange sensitivity.

Readers will be moved by the tension of this love triangle and hooked, absorbed and surprised by the obscure, mysterious plot, while the writing reaches heights that will awaken the deepest emotions. This is what makes 'El error azul' a great novel, and one that without doubt will leave its mark on Spanish literature.
