In these pages, there is love and a great deal of unbearable pain; there is death in life and destruction, but also justice and hope. Through this novel and its protagonists, Jaume Sanllorente offers the reader a impressive, poorly understood reality: human trafficking and the people who dedicate their lives to fighting it.

Alma, Tessa, Quique, Danilo, Carol and Glenda are products of the author's imagination, but they are based on flesh and blood men and women whose untiring, tenacious everyday battle turns them into real heroes.
