Season: SPRING 2012

A side-splitting romantic comedy and witty satire on the safari and jungle adventure genre.

A secret treasure lies hidden at the heart of Africa. Many have spent years of study and organised great expeditions in the attempt to find it. It takes Daniela only three days. It all begins when she and her sister Claudia embark on a glamorous, super-luxury tour of Morocco. Their holiday takes an unexpected turn that leads them to enrol on an expedition to South Africa, led by an old friend of the family. Daniela, New Moon is a side-splitting romantic comedy and a witty satire on the conventions of the safari and jungle adventure genre (Mogambo, King Solomon's Mines). Brave adventurers, beautiful women, legendary diamonds, old flames...
