Che and Lola have been friends for forty years, and to celebrate, they go on a journey to India, a country they wanted to visit in their youth. For Che, it is a very special adventure, as she has already spent long periods in the country and she is excited to be able to show her friend one of her most precious paradises. However, little by little she will discover that their friendship, one of the mainstays of her life, is plagued by lies and betrayal.
