Season: SPRING 2012

A miscellaneous collection of history, mythology and other evocative tales.

The Mediterranean is a sea as intricate as a labyrinth and as welcoming as a sunny public square in winter. The author of "Secrets of the Mediterranean" portrays this sea he loves as though in an impressionist painting, in broad brush strokes and bright colours, to build up a suggestive image of a sea overlooked by the people and landscapes of three continents and on whose shores almost everything began.
