Martín Berasategui's new book features 150 straightforward yet surprising recipes.

Martín Berasategui and El País-Aguilar have joined forces once again to present foodlovers with the kinds of meals everyone loves, meals that are based in home cooking, prepared properly and with honesty - Martin's hallmarks. The touch of a master.

Readers needn't worry about overly-sophisticated techniques or unusual ingredients. These 150 recipes utilize the kinds of products anyone can find in the supermarket, and to cook them you don't need any special skills, just the desire to eat well and enjoy cooking.
