Many people are paid employees in jobs for which they feel no passion, jobs they continue doing solely for the pay cheque at the end of the month. On the other hand, there are the enterprising people who have set out on a business adventure and who often have deal deal with a variety of problems and difficulties in fulfilling their dream. Being enterprising is a question of balance. Living without a Boss helps to walk that tightrope without vacillation. If you want to go into business and not fail in the attempt, this is the book for you.
